

Keith Brian Kay

February 22, 1964 - October 9, 2022

Keith Brian Kay, 58, of Tulare, California, passed away Sunday, October 9, 2022. He was born on February 22, 1964, the son of Jimmy and Betty Kay. Keith was a great father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and son. He was a chef and a welder for many years. He loved the color red. He loved old-school cars, family trips, camping, listening to music, quoting movies, and being a dad and a grandpa. He enjoyed learning something new and teaching something new to someone else. His biggest enjoyment was telling jokes and putting a smile on someone's face. Keith impacted many lives throughout his time here. He will forever be missed by his family and friends.

Keith leaves behind his three daughters and son; Jennifer, Julie, and Andrea, and Benjamin. His grandchildren; Autum, Gabriel, Lily, Kaylie, Delilah, Rosario, Isaiah, Noah, Savannah, and Leila. He is also survived by his brothers Jimmy, Bobby, and Wayne Kay.

we became friends in 1969 or 1970 we started kindergarten together at kohn then we went to garden, cherry Union then continue seeing each other 5 days a week all school year round then hanging out as we were growing up and even as adults you were always a true friend that I've known over 50 years, we could always talk bout anything and nothing you always knew how to make awkward situations into live entertainment! gotta live it and love it... good memories, gonna miss ya ole friend. Rest In Peace.
