It is with heavy hearts, but happy souls, that we have gained our own personal guardian angel.

Kelly (Saulque) Salcedo, beloved wife of Stephen Salcedo, of Exeter Ca, passed away peacefully March 17, 2015 at her home after complications due to Breast Cancer.

She is survived by her beloved son Eric Salcedo. One sister Karen Taylor, her husband Bart, nephews Bradley and Josh, all from Exeter. Brother Mike Saulque, his wife Jennifer, nephews Jason and Parker all from Visalia. Her father and mother in law, Bob and Lilly Salcedo from Lindsay.

Kelly worked many years in the Real Estate field. She started her career in real estate at the age of 17. She met many people and made many friends along the way. Her beautiful smile, big heart and her infectious laugh would light up any room, she lived and loved life to the fullest. Kelly was a true inspiration to many. Kelly enjoyed pretty much everything in life especially being with her many, friends, family and HUGS!

Her most precious joy was her beautiful son Eric. He reminds us everyday of her with that same smile and big heart. Her beloved husband Steve who has learned to become both mother, father, and nurse this past year. In his words..." I will never ever find another Kelly and will never love anyone the way I loved her." Their love for each other was visible to many.
