

Kenneth Allan Atkinson

August 11, 1965 - November 17, 2014

Kenneth Allan “Kenny” Atkinson, age 49, passed away at Community Regional Hospital in Fresno, CA, on Monday, November 17, 2014. His current place of residence was Visalia, CA.

Born on August 11, 1965, in Visalia, CA, to Raye and Dale Atkinson, Kenny was the younger of two sons. He graduated from Woodlake High School in 1983. He was later joined in marriage with Betty Sahagun in 1988; together, they parented two children: daughter, Christine and son, Aaron. Kenny’s current employer was Visalia Unified School District; he held the position of Groundsman at Redwood High School.

He is survived by his mother and step-father, Raye and Bob Boger; father and step-mother, Dale and Judy Atkinson; siblings: brothers, Kevin, Doug, and Mike, and sister, Vicky; wife, Betty; children, Christine and Aaron; and grandson, Isaac.

Kenny is loved and remembered by his easy-going spirit, willing attitude, and simplistic lifestyle. With an ever-busy mind and capable hands, he was found building cars and motorcycles, owning and managing a local Drive-In diner, renovating homes, and tent-camping in Kings Canyon with family.

Services will be held at 1 p.m., Monday, December 1, at the Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel in Visalia, CA.
