“ OMG... I was not aware of this until just now. She was one of my best friends in the mortgage business in the early 2000s. We stayed in touch after I left the industry in 2009, but when I moved to Texas we kinda lost touch. I went to her house one Easter for dinner. Had a great time.

I met Kim when Dennis invited her over to his house in Fresno to listen to him and Allen playing music around 1976. I think she was around 23 or 24 years old at the time, and the two boys were still little. Dennis fell instantly in love with her and loved her red hair, and he loved the boys. She was a great Sister-in-law and we all had lots of fun together when we were young. When Dennis took trips without her, he couldn't wait to get back to her, even if it meant cutting his trip short. Thank you, Kim for being a great wife for Dennis and a great mother to your kids and grandkids. Rest in Peace. Love You!!
