

Kristi Aiello

September 15, 1951 - November 5, 2016

Kristi Jean Aiello, loving mother, wife, daughter, and sister, passed away on the fifth of November, 2016, at the age of sixty-five.

She passed away at her Visalia home, where she had been a resident for the last 37 years. Kristi was born in San Francisco, California, to Maude and Raymond Siebels, and loved to tell stories of her time there. She met Carl at a Thanksgiving dinner in the city of Burlingame. Marriage and children followed soon after. In addition to being a loving mother, Kristi also devoted her nurturing energy to the many students she came into contact with during her 20-plus year career as a Teacher's Aide in the Visalia Unified School District. She is survived by her devoted spouse, Carl; her daughter Brooke Aiello and son-in law, Jay Parks; her son Joe Aiello and daughter-in-law, Beth Aiello; her siblings, Virginia Elliott, and David Siebels; and two grand-doggies, Tasha and Allie.

The Aiello family invites those that knew Kristi to a celebration of her life to be held at the Veteran's Memorial Building in Visalia, at 609 West Center Street, on Friday, December 2nd at 6:00 PM. Dinner will follow.

Kristi will be dearly missed, and forever loved.
