“ I'm truly blessed that Larry was in my life. I can't explain how thankful I feel for the things he's done for me! Larry loved all his kids and treated me as if I was one of his own, he was so thankful for his grandchildren. Always bragged about his Sister Sara and Brother Lenny and once I met them I found out why, they have a heart just like him!!! I'm thankful and blessed to be a part of the Aiello Family! I love you all, Teresa

“ Larry ment so much to my family. He helped us in so many ways. We became great friends and did almost everything together while we were in Nevada. He brought us to church, treated us like one of his own. I will never forget his laughter! I love you Larry. Be with Jesus and see you again soon. Where we will laugh!

“ *We send our condolences to the family of Lawrence Aiello. We have wonderful memories and remember the many good things that Larry did. Larry attended and worked for the Nutley Abundant Life Worship Center in Nutley New Jersey and was a true blessing that will long be remembered. Our prayers and encouragement is extended to his lovely family for peace and comfort during this time. God Bless you
