“ I knew Lawrence when I was born since my father, Richard Ramirez, and him were good friends. He was like an uncle to me and even lived with us when I was young. He always gave me money, bought me ice cream, and stuck up for us, as an uncle would. My mom has a picture when I was small of me on his shoulders, me wearing his Raybans. I was so happy when I seen him recently back home and he would wait for me every morning as I drove to work, I would honk, wave, and yell his name and say good morning! He made my day, every day! I am saddened to hear about his passing! Condolences to the Garcia Family!
