

Lily Del Real

November 11, 1940 - October 12, 2025

Lily Del Real, beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away October 12, 2025 surrounded by her loving family. She was born to Mauro Vicuna and Petra Arredando on November 11, 1940 in Woodlake, California.

Lily dedicated her life to hard work and caring for those she loved. She worked at the Strathmore Packing House from 1975 until her well-deserved retirement, earning the respect and friendship of many over the years.

She had a deep love for plants and flowers, always finding joy in tending to her garden. Lily also enjoyed trips to the casino to play bingo and had a well-known sweet tooth. Above all, her greatest joy was her only grandchild, Gisselle. Lily never missed a single livestock show where Gisselle competed—cheering her on proudly, rain or shine.

Lily is survived by her two daughters, Judy Del Real of Strathmore, CA, and Jo Ann Del Real Sandoval and her husband Anthony of Porterville, CA; one son, Richard Del Real and his wife Laura of Lindsay, CA; and her cherished granddaughter, Gisselle Del Real of Visalia, CA, along with her 3 sisters, Matilda Rodriguez of Lindsay, CA, Rosalie Stailey of Exeter, CA, and Micalea Vicuna Gann of Exeter, CA. She is preceded in death by her husband, Richard Del Real and one brother Frank Vicuna, two sisters Maura V. Felix, and Alexandria Vicuna.

Her memory will live on through the love she shared and the countless lives she touched.

“ Just sitting here reflecting on my Aunt Lily's passing. I recollect a special memory of many but this particular one stands out to me. At my mom's graveside services, she whispered in my ear that should would step in and be a mom to me now. I will forever be grateful for her love, kindness and support that got me through my toughest months of all, the passing of my husband Henry. Aunt Lily was by my side and checked on me often on my well being. She was always just a phone call away and brought me much comfort just to hear her sweet voice.

I will miss her dearly and gives me much comfort to know she is now with her beloved husband, parents, sisters and brother.

Until we meet again Aunt Lily, you will live in my heart forever.

“ Aunt Lilly was the kindest sweetest person you could ever meet. She always greeted you with “sugar” or “honey” even strangers. She never talked bad about anyone and always kept humble. She was an example to all of us like an angel on earth. Now she can be with her close sisters, my mom, Maura, and Alex who were waiting for her. Rest in peace Aunt Lilly. I love you very much 🙏
