“ Linda was such a very nice person. She came to Bible study at our house with several of her friends and we had a wonderful time learning about the Lord, She will be greatly missed but we know we will see her again. Heaven's gain and our loss. Prayers of comfort for her family.

“ I had the privilege of driving Linda to a bible study for several years along with attending church at New Beginnings. We discussed all kinds of topics on our drive, shared many laughs and tears. One evening I told Linda I was going to pick up McFlurries at McDonalds for a treat to everyone. She had never had one before but when she started in eating hers, it was like a special treat like no other. She totally loved it. I got to visit with Linda in May and she felt good enough to sit at her kitchen table to talk for over an hour. We reminisced about our conversations during our drives and shared many more laughs. I was able to pray with her and felt such peace when I left. She lifted my spirit and I hope I helped lift her's for a short time. Thank you Art for your generous gift of caring for my friend Linda. I will cherish the visits in my home at the holidays and her friendship forever.
