

Lori Ann Marchese

January 17, 1962 - March 21, 2024

Lori tragically passed away on Thursday March 21st, 2024 at the age of 62. At the time of her passing, Lori was a resident of Phoenix, AZ.

Lori was born in Mount Kisco, New York in 1962. Her family moved to Florida where she spent most of her childhood, and then settled in Visalia, California where she graduated from Mt. Whitney High School class of 1980. Lori achieved an Associate's degree from the College of the Sequoias.

Lori left a legacy of "I'll never forget when Lori said/did ..." Lori was known for her vivaciousness. She was a free spirit, a giver by nature and was always the loudest person in the room. Lori thrived in chaos and refused to settle for the mundane. She was a special type of person who decided at an early age to make the world her playground. To know Lori was to be annoyed, amused, offended by, humored and entertained within the same five minutes. Lori was an enigmatic presence and was known for being a full-blooded Italian force of nature. She was a beautiful soul full of emotion and she wore it proudly on her sleeve.

Lori will be forever remembered by her children Danali Marie McCain and Vincent Wayne George, Jr., her only grandchild Sadie Marie Grant, her brother Steven Joseph Marchese and her nephew Nicholas Adam Marchese. Lori was preceded in death by her parents Gloria Marie Marchese and Salvatore Joseph Marchese.

Lori's internment will take place April 22nd, 11am at the Visalia Cemetery. She will be laid to rest in the mausoleum near her mother and father. Memorial contributions for Lori may be sent to Danali McCain 4109 E. Meadow, Visalia, CA 93292.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.

I hadn't seen Lori in years and she definitely flew by her own music. Interesting to me was during her passing suddenly she came to mind. I feel like she touched me upon leaving. Thank you! I wish you didn't need to leave so soon. I wonder who will be next. I lit a candle for you as well.
