

Lucio Jimenez Garcia

December 13, 1936 - July 3, 2018

Lucio J. Garcia went home to God on July 3, 2018.

He went peacefully at his home that he built.

He was preceded in death by his parents Susano and Prefecta Garcia, Sister Dominga Hernandez and his Beloved son Lucio Garcia Jr. He is survived by his wife of 59 years Angie Reynoso Garcia, Daughters Nellie R. Garcia and Christina Garcia-Avina. Grandsons Brian Pedroza, Raymond Garcia, Richard Garcia, Ruben Ramirez and Michael Ramirez all of Visalia. Granddaughters Irene Garcia of Hawaii, Marie Fernandez, Rachel Ramirez and Annette Avina all of Visalia. 19 great grandchildren and 3 great great grandchildren. His Brother Val Garcia (Liz), Sister Patsy Resa and Domania Arenivaz and numerous nephews and nieces.

Lucio was born in Fort Stockton, Texas on December 13, 1936. He left home at age 16. He held a numerous job and had many adventures before he joined the Air Force in 1955. He moved to Visalia where he met and married Angie.

They recently celebrate 59 years of marriage on March 2, 2018. He retired from Screw Conveyor Pacific Corp. after 35 years as a metal fabricator.

Lucio was a very active man. You could find him working on his yard, making, or repairing something with his hands. He was a self-taught man, always found a way to complete whatever he was doing. Although he always looked so serious he had a great sense of humor. He enjoyed telling stories of life.

Lucio will be greatly missed by the people that knew him.
