“ Lucy you are truly missed. Words can not express my sadness. I will cherish those memories in my heart. Your time here on earth has ended, but God called you home to start your new journey in heaven, He needed a special angel. Forever remembered, forever missed.

“ Lucy, I have know you since we were small. You lived by the recreation center and I met you there when I would visit my Aunt and Uncle. We were instant friends. That's the kind of person you were. You were always a bright spot in my day when you came into Wal Mart and we would visit like we hadn't seen each other in years even tho it may have only been a week or so. I will miss you so very much my dear friend. But you are with the Angels now and at peace.

“ Lucy you will be greatly missed. I will always remember that last gathering you attended for our class of 76 luncheon at Pam's in the hills where she lived. I made you laugh so much that day. Like you said once before, you thought my stories were always the best. That was the day I was wearing this yellow blouse and I said I looked like a big tub of butter and you said no you looked like a Lemon. You were wearing a Lime green shirt and I said you looked like a Lime, We laugh and laugh!! That was a great day huh!! You should have seen what I did at this last luncheon we had in Sept. over at Lori Espino's house. You would have laughed so hard you would have pee pee your chonies at what I did. Oh well you know me. You take care and bless you my LIME!!!
