“ So sorry to hear about your loss, Lupe was my best friend growing up together, she was a great person and always loved partying she was always my right hand, I loved it when she would say my parents only let me go out when you asked or said you would be with me? She was my maid of honor in my wedding, she would always tell me are you sure you want to marry this guy? She even Baptized my first born! She will be missed! Wish we had spent more time together growing old!
