“ Manuel had been battling emphysema for years, unfortunately over this past year things took a turn for the worse. I remember visiting with Manuel during this past year and he was always upbeat about things. He wasn't down or depressed as anyone in that condition could have been. His spirits were high ready to laugh and crack jokes. I admired how brave he was through this terrible ordeal. Thank you for showing such bravery in the face of adversity.

“ The thing that stands out the most to me when I think about Manuel is how much he loved his mother and the relationship they had. They would talk on the phone for hours at a time and whenever he was feeling ill or be in the hospital, grandma Maria would always make sure she had a ride to visit with him.

When we would visit him, we would almost always find him behind a stack of lottery tickets. That was, I suppose, his favorite hobby - scratching off those tickets. Anyone who knew him, knew that they were the perfect gift for any occasion and that he would not be disappointed.

Something that everyone might not know is that during one of our visits with him, he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. At the end of each visit, he would ask Mario to pray with him and whoever was in the room.

Although there is much pain and sorrow because of his passing, we should all take comfort knowing that he had peace in his heart - knowing that he was a child of God and that he was being taken into Jesus' arms the second he left us here on earth.

He left us all the greatest example that any father, grandfather, son, brother, husband, or friend could leave. Jesus Christ is the way, truth and life.

Manuel is home now and is at peace.

Mario and I love you guys very much!
