“ Manuel you were my first born and the absolute love of my life. You taught me how to love more than I ever thought I could. So many memories it's hardly to just share one. One of my favorites is when you were young and we would go to the movies you always wanted me to give you the money so you could pay because that's what boys were supposed to do! Another one is when came home from prison my birthday was soon after and you saved money to buy me the new 50 cent CD. You were a such a sweet boy. The pain I feel knowing I will never see your face, hear your voice, read a text, or be with you again is the worst pain ever. My heart is broken. It's only been 20 days but seems like an eternity since I've seen you. I love you so much my baby boy. I promise to watch over your boys and keep them safe. You will remain in my heart forever.....rest well son
