

Marcelina Pena

November 26, 1975 - March 22, 2018

Marci Pena entered the gates of Heaven on Thursday, March 22, 2018 at the age of 42. She is survived by her grandmother Marcelina Abila of Goshen, her two children Martin and Jasmine Hernandez of Goshen. Her parents Victor and Patsy Pena of Goshen. Siblings Victor Pena and wife Lizzette of Tulare, Sally De Ochoa and husband Ruben of Tulare, sister Betty Pena of Goshen, sister Michelle Garcia and husband Rene of Tulare, sister Sonia Martinez of Visalia. As well as numerous nieces and nephews. She enjoyed listening to oldies, hanging out with family, knitting blankets and giving them away, spoiling her nieces and nephews, drinking Dr. Pepper and taking pictures capturing priceless moments and posting them on Facebook. She was loved by her family and anyone who knew her. Her children were her pride and joy and she did a wonderful job raising them.

Services will be held at Mt. Zion Apostolic Church, 7210 Ave. 308, Goshen on Wednesday, March 28, 2018. The viewing will be held at 9:30am-10:00am (family) 10:00am (public). A Church service will be held at 11:00am and will conclude at the Visalia Cemetery. Condolences can be made to www.salseranddillard.com

“ I enjoyed hanging out with my cousin Marci. We could talk about anything. We shared lot's of laughs. I especially loved listening to her talk about her kids. She loved Martin and Jasmine so much. She was a very kind and loving person. Getting together with the family will never be the same because you have taken a piece of our hearts with you. I love you cousin. I already miss you.
