“ *Grandma,
You were one of my best and first friends in life. We had so many amazing memories together. Make sure to teach grandpa and Nan the "Pizza Hut, Kentucky Fried Chicken and McDonald's" song. I know how much you loved it. :-) See you later in life and I love you with all my heart.

So many memories. From the time I can remember you always made someone laugh, had fun at whatever you did no matter if it was understood or not and were always before your time in many ways. I always knew that you loved me even through your teasing and our misunderstandings. The last time we spent together in Tulare will always be precious to me because that's the time we actually reconnected as adults, we grew closer and I will be forever grateful. You were not well this past October, but when I e-mailed you about what had been going on in my life you sent the nicest message back to me-one of hope and praise for my courage in taking this chance in my life at this time in my life and you were proud of me. I love you and will miss you. Hug dad and grandma for me and enjoy your new home in heaven! .
