

Margarita Luna Chavez

June 10, 1953 - August 11, 2025

Margarita Luna Chavez age 72, passed away on Monday August 11, 2025 @ the Open Arms hospice home in Visalia. She was born on June 10, 1953 in Edinburg Texas to Pedro Luna & Manuela Chavez.

She traveled all over the US in her childhood following the field work her parents did and graduated high school from Redwood high in Visalia California in 1971. She worked many jobs in her lifetime and retired from RR Donnell's paper manufacturing where she worked for 15+ years she was very proud of her work there always boasting about what she did and how in demand she was because she was so good at her job.

Margaret was a beautiful person always willing to help others especially her family whenever they were in need. She loved life and was very confident in herself.

She smiled all the time and giggled if u looked at her or made a funny accent.

She is survived by her two children Michele and Tommy daughter in law Elizabeth and two grandchildren Allison and Elijah, 4 sisters , 2 brothers and lots more family and a life partner named Ignacio. Family and friends will forever be touched by Margaret's love and warmth.
