

Maria Huerta Flores

March 15, 1947 - March 11, 2024

Ma. Francisca Huerta Flores, 77, of Visalia, peacefully passed away on March 11, 2024.

Maria Francisca Huerta Flores born in Mezquital del Oro, Zacatecas in 1947. Being the third out of 11 children to Manuel Huerta and Guadalupe Flores she was a devoted Catholic and known as "Pancha" by family and friends. During her younger years of life in Mexico she helped raise her siblings in which they consider her as a mother. However, her love for life and pursuit of having her own family changed when she was blessed to have children of her own. She relished being a mom all over again by supporting and encouraging her two daughters Ermelinda and Armida to pursue their education.

She will be missed by many as she also leaves behind her 4 grandchildren which can attest to the love that she had for them.

In remembrance of her life, she loved cooking, gardening, sewing, and most of all taking care of her family and friends.

She is survived by her two daughters: Ermelinda Roldan and Armida Gomez, four brothers, sister, and four grandchildren: Matthew Gomez, Ruben Roldan, Jesse Casso Rascon, Raul Roldan.
