

Maria Angela "Angie" Garza

September 2, 1934 - September 2, 2020

Angela "Angie" Luna Garza was born in San Luis, Potosi, Matehula, Mexico on September 2, 1934, 86 years later on her birthday, she entered Heaven's gates to be embraced by her loving husband "Onie" Garza.

At a young age with a little education, she traveled with her Tia Antonia, back and forth from Mexico and Texas until they finally settled in Donna, Texas.

Throughout her teenage years, she started working as a waitress in a restaurant/bakery with her Tia Antonia. She then met her future husband Onesimo Garza, got married and then moved to Woodlake, CA where they resided for approximately 55 years.

Angie worked most of her life in Agriculture and worked extremely hard as a farm laborer foreman for many years. She took pride in all that she did. One of her proudest moments and accomplishments was becoming a United States Citizen on June 3rd, 1996.

Angie loved her coffee and cookies in the morning while sitting in her favorite seat at the kitchen table. She also loved to watch her Novelas, record Juan Gabriel concerts and watch Telemundo to hear her horoscope from the famous Walter Mercado. Would sometimes put phone calls on hold while she waited for her important horoscope.

Angie had an unwavering faith in God that gave her the strength to handle the plans God had for her. She became a widow on January 13, 2006 then moved to Visalia where she spent her last years to be close to her daughters Annabelle & Oneida.

Angie was predeceased by her mother Anastasia Armenta, father Pedro Luna. Husband Onesimo Garza Sr., her son Onesimo Garza Jr. She is survived by her daughters Annabelle Garza Marquez, Oneida Garza Martinez and her two sisters, Mary Armenta Alfaro and Gloria Armenta Villacana. Grandchildren Noemi, Serica, Onie, Che, Robert, Celeste and Chris. She is also survived by 11 great grandchildren Anthony Marcus, Chelsea, Jayde, Noah, Serina, Marcus, Aliyah, Dretis, Abigail, Niya and Hayven. One great great grandchild, Kingston. She also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, family, and friends. The family would like to express their thanks for the love and support from all.
