

Maria David Tejeda

October 6, 1942 - November 23, 2021

Maria David Tejeda was born on October 6th, 1942 to Elias Cervantez and Eutimia Gudiño. Maria passed away peacefully surrounded by family on November 23rd, 2021.

Maria lived in Mexico for most of her life. She married Daniel Valos Oliva on March 8th, 1954. She had 2 beautiful daughters, Maria Socorro Valos and Mariana Cardenas. She then remarried to Javier Tejeda. Whom brought her to the United States in 1980. Shortly after they had her only son Ramon Tejeda. She taught her children by example, to work hard and to be thankful for the opportunities God provided. She adored her family. Always showed love to her children, grandchildren, and her great grandchildren. She was a beautiful mother and grandmother.

Maria enjoyed baking and crafting. She would always find new recipes for cakes and other desserts. No one will ever forget her chocoflan cakes that she made with such love. She would as well sew blankets for her family and friends. Her outgoing personality and her sense of humor always lit up a room.

Her family will never be the same without her, as she was the backbone and glue of the family. Each person who got to know her and love her can completely understand why. Maria David Tejeda will never be forgotten. Her name lives on and will forever be cherished by many. This is not a goodbye but a "See you soon."
