

Marivel Rangel

October 17, 1977 - December 21, 2022

Mother, Daughter, Sister, and Friend. Marivel R. Mendoza was a caring and joyous bright light in this world who persevered through challenges in her life. She was the 45 year old daughter born 10.17.1977 to Guadalupe Ramos and John Franklin Mendoza. She was born in Fresno, CA and lived most of her life in Visalia, CA. She was the mother of four children: Juan Carlos Campos, Ariana Lucy Marquez, Eve Samantha Marquez, and Jayla Lupita Marquez (and daughter in-law Cynthia). She was a loving and hardworking mother; through her personal struggles she still strove to be a great mother. She recently began a job as an apartment manager, but previously worked nearly a decade in education, supporting children with special needs, and before that worked more than a decade in Health Services as a Medical Assistant. She had many creative hobbies including painting, carpentry, singing, and writing her own inspiration quotes. She was a colorful sister to Delia, Carmelito, Pita, and Bella.

Mom you will always be our sunshine when skies are gray; our bright light when life gets tough: rest now you are free from your pain.

My condolences to her kids and family and loved ones. God be with them comfort them and help their hearts heal during their loss. She just became the manager and she seemed intimidating but when I went to speak with her she was so down to earth and nice. She was pleasant. Rest in peace 🥹
