

Maurine Mayberry

February 2, 1921 - October 31, 2015

Frances Maurine Mayberry was born on February 2, 1921 in Browning , Missouri to Lucille and Paul Kollasch. She graduated in 1943 from Nurses Training in Kansas City, Missouri. In 1943 Maurine moved to Tulare, CA where she married Richard Mayberry on July 31, 1943. While living in Tulare she attended Saint Aloysius Catholic Church where for many years she sang in the choir. She supported the Church's annual dinner with items she had made and every Christmas she made sure she had gotten a tag from the Salvation Army Christmas Tree. Her hobbies consisted of sewing, knitting, collecting and sewing for Barbie Dolls, reading, playing the organ/piano and for many years she played the organ/piano twice a month at West Gate Gardens. She was always helping out with activities or someone needing help at Oak Tree Estates where she lived. She also did machine embroidery on pillow tops for the kids at Kaweah Delta Hospital, and made scarves for the ladies going through treatments at the Kaweah Delta Cancer Center. God called Maurine to Heaven on the morning of October 31, 2015. Maurine is survived by her sons Phillip N. Mayberry of Visalia, CA and Michael P. Mayberry of Wilton Manor, FL; Niece Teresa Spang of Portland, OR; Nephews Mark Kollasch of Vancouver, WA, Paul Kollasch of Vacaville, CA, Tom Warren of Visalia, CA, Dana Warren of Los Osos, CA, Denis Warren of Los Angeles, CA, and Donald Warren of Texas; she is also survived by many great nephews and great nieces. A memorial mass will be held for her on Saturday, November 28, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at Saint Aloysius Catholic Church in Tulare. In lieu of flowers
