Melodie Ann Carrasco was born on October 18th, 1982. She grew up in Visalia, Ca. and she graduated from Redwood High School in the year 2000. Melo worked in Production for the past 15 years at Mission Linen and held a second part-time position with Paragon Cleaners. She was very dedicated and an extremely hard worker. A total of 7 brothers includes Alex, Emilio, Isaac, Valentine, Frank, Ralph, Danny and 2 Sisters Amelia and Kristen, Her Nina "Sunshine", Momma Candy, Momma Sue, and Auntie Rose. Although we cannot list all of the numerous cousins, aunts, and uncles, please know that she loved you all dearly! Lastly, an honorable mention of her beautiful nieces and nephews that she was so very proud of and even more proud to bear the name, "Tia Melo". She loved her social life that included activities from being out in the woods camping with her family to watching her favorite football team, the 49ers, with many relatives and countless friends. The combination of her amazing smile and her outgoing fun energy turned any occasion to laughter. She touched our hearts in so many ways, she will be missed by all.
