

Michael Lewis Dowd

July 29, 1984 - February 14, 2026

Michael Lewis Dowd, 41 of Visalia, California passed away on February 14, 2026, in Fresno, California. Michael was born to Lew & Nancy Dowd (Minyard) on July 29, 1984 in Tulare, California.

Michael grew up in Tulare and graduated from Tulare Union High School in 2002 where he was active in Band, Football, Water Polo and Cross Country.

He served our country for 4 years in the Coast Guard as an Operations Specialist with most of his time spent in Juneau, Alaska. After his time in the Coast Guard he attended Cal State Long Beach earning his bachelors degree before pursuing a career as a Software Engineer. Michael was a highly talented software engineer who made meaningful contributions to companies such as SpaceX, CloudKitchens, ABL Space Systems, and Magenta. His work helped launch hundreds of rockets, supported the restaurant delivery industry and helped streamline manufacturing operations. Outside of work, he was an avid video game developer who loved creating new games.

Michael was a lover of all things outdoors including hiking, backpacking and fishing. He loved adventure and spending time/traveling with family and friends be it family trips to Disneyland, travels to Hawaii and Europe, fishing in Alaska, hiking angels landing trail in Zion National Park, climbing Alta Peak in the Sierras or a simple weekend getaway to the coast with Sabrina and Penelope.

He is survived by his wife Sabrina Dowd; one daughter, Penelope Rose Dowd; his parents Lew & Nancy Dowd, in-laws Kimberly & Ernie Rodriguez, sister Melinda Lumpkin (David), brother Brett Dowd, Nephew Mark Lumpkin and family dog Bella.

Michael will truly be missed by all.
