“ Michael was very loyal. He accumulated lots of knowledge through traveling and living across the world. He often made references to obscure things that he assumed was common knowledge. He was a patriot and cared about his country. He was a good teacher. I will miss his quirky demeanor. Brian Holland OD

Mike was kind hearted and generous, well spoken and well traveled, a former USAF officer involved with the U2 program, a Univ. of Hawaii graduate, a credentialed teacher, and a good and sincere friend for almost 20 years - I miss him. Memories: in 2001 we traveled to Sri Lanka together where I introduced him to Sir Arthur C. Clarke. The three of us made a trip down to Hikkaduwa together to Arthur's villa and, for the entire time, Mike kept Arthur in stitches with his jokes and good humor. Toward the end of our visit the two played table tennis (that's English for Ping Pong) at Otters in Colombo...but, unfortunately (and despite their age difference), Mike was unable to BEST the master! Rest in peace brother. Wayne Houser
