

Michael A. Vasquez

September 1, 1957 - December 17, 2020

VISALIA - Michael A. Vasquez, 63, of Visalia, CA. is resting peacefully in heaven with his father and mother, Rudy Vasquez Sr. and Shirley Vasquez, as well as his Grandmother, Toni Lujan Waheed, all of Visalia, CA.

Michael left this life on December 17, 2020 in Visalia, CA. He leaves behind his loving family; His son, Jason Vasquez, wife Erica, and two sweet granddaughters, Avery and Tessa of Visalia, CA. Also, his two brothers, Rudy Vasquez Jr., wife Mary, of Exeter, CA., and brother Larry Vasquez of Portland, OR., as well as numerous aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. It would be unfair to not include his constant companion, his dog, Breana.

Gardening and music were a major part of his daily activities until he became disabled. But he still enjoyed playing his favorite songs and singing with his karaoke machine. He also was an avid sports fanatic, and loved analyzing all teams and individual players.

Michael graduated from Redwood High School, and excelled in baseball as an outstanding shortstop. He attended College of the Sequoias, and graduated from University of Nevada, Las Vegas with a Bachelor of Science degree in Hospitality Management. Michael's career included managing several Elite Hotels and Restaurants in Las Vegas, Hawaii and California. During his career, he became a gourmet cook, and always volunteered one of his amazing entrees at family celebrations.

Michael loved his family and enjoyed entertaining them all with his contagious personality and quick wit at family gatherings. He was gifted with a bright mind, and loved to entertain all. Your family and friends love and miss you, Michael.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.
