

Miguel Angel Flores Rodriguez

April 7, 1990 - August 5, 2022

Miguel Angel Flores Rodriguez, 32, was born in Fresno, CA, and resided in Ivanhoe CA. Miguel passed away on August 5, 2022, from complications of open-heart surgery at UCSF San Francisco. He is survived by his parents Yesenia Rodriguez and Navor Flores, his brother Jose Carlos Flores, and his two sisters Mariela Flores, and Fabiola Flores. Miguel was greeted in heaven by his maternal grandfather Alfredo Rodriguez Robles. Miguel was a wonderful being and loved by his family and friends. He was a man with a heart of gold who gave and never expected to receive. Miguel was a humbled man who dedicated quality time by bringing his family together for many essential occasions. One of his many joys was to tease his family, especially his cousins. Miguel was a devoted family man whom everyone loved being around. He was the rock of his family with an enormous heart, a contagious laugh, the perfect smile, and the best listening ear. Miguel was the friend who would walk in when we felt that the rest of the world had walked out. He was a man that shared a bond with many that would transcend time, space, and distance. Miguel's curiosity, goals, and interests in life were nurtured by his motivation to travel and explore many cultures. His favorite places to visit were Phoenix, AZ, and Zacatecas, MX, where his family resides. His dreams and aspirations were to open a family business that will not go in vain as his family will keep those dreams alive. He was passionate about his job at a non-profit organization and wanted to pursue his career in the education system to make a difference in children's lives. Miguel is leaving behind many beautiful memories that will live on forever through loved ones.
