

Mildred Alice Azbill

January 26, 1922 - January 2, 2020

Mildred Alice Azbill passed away on January 2, 2020 in Visalia, 24 days before her 98th birthday.

She was born January 26, 1922 in Bakersfield, CA. to John and Lenora OLarimer.

Mom married Robert Azbill on November 9, 1940, while a student at COS. Dad passed away in 2002. They shared the fun and hard work of 62 years together.

Mom worked as a secretary for Boy Scouts of America and retired from the County of Tulare Juvenile Probation. She worked a full time job, cooked, cleaned, sewed and raised two children.

She is preceded in death by her parents, husband Robert, two sisters, Evelyn Donaldson and Frances Huth.

She is survived by her daughters Pam (James) Hongola from Sonora and Candice Kennemer from Visalia. She also leaves three grandchildren Jaimee (Jeffrey) Carreras of New Orleans, Matthew Kennemer of Visalia and Brynne Howell of San Diego as well as four great-grandchildren.

We are grateful for the care provided to Mom by her caregivers and friends:

Jennifer Dias, Melody David, Lora Castillo and Pam Williams. With their assistance Mom was able to continue to live at home.

Mom, we love you and will miss you always.
