

Mozart Lozano

January 28, 1957 - July 4, 2020

A loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and son, Mozart Lozano, 63 of Visalia California, entered into eternal rest Saturday, July 4, 2020, in Los Angeles, California.

Mozart was born to Abraham Lozano and Lydia Castillo on January 28, 1957, in Fresno, California. He is the third oldest of nine children. Mozart grew up in Mexico and attended High School in Escuela Preparatoria Benemerito de las Americas, later transferring to, and graduating from, Robert E. Lee High School in San Antonio, Texas. He was a decorated athlete who excelled in Track and Field, including one of 30 athletes who represented Mexico while throwing discus at the Inaugural Central American Athletic Championships in Maracaibo, Venezuela. Later participating in the 1975 Pan American Games in Mexico City, awarded with medals and other awards while traveling extensively to represent Mexico, and then, Long Beach City College.

Mozart, a devout member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, served a two-year mission at age 19 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he taught and helped others. This instilled in him a habit and tradition of service to God by uncompromisingly putting others first throughout his life. Mozart was a dedicated and devoted single father to three children for many years, supporting his family by working as a Correctional Officer for the California Department of Corrections at both Corcoran and Chowchilla State Prisons, a career that lasted 29 years.

After years of dedication to his three children, he found love and an eternal companion in Elsa Rojas. They married March 10, 2001, in the Fresno California Temple. Mozart and Elsa were blessed with two children.

Mozart enjoyed writing, art, visiting museums, camping, exploring, spending time with his family, and serving others. His greatest joys were his family and his testimony of God and the gospel. Those who knew Mozart would describe him as a gentle spiritual giant, large in stature but with a big heart and a million-dollar smile. Others recognized him for his nobility, integrity, honesty, kindness, hard work, and love of God. Mozart lit up any room with his jokes and laughter.

He was preceded in death by his mother Lydia Castillo, survived by his father Abraham Lozano, and in-laws Celia Pineda Sanchez and Sergio Rojas Espinosa. Mozart leaves behind his dedicated and adoring eternal companion Elsa, his five children, Mozart (Lily), Malinali (Matthew), Socrates (Anna), Sergio, Benjamin, seven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild on the way, nine siblings, Irazema, Sabino, Luz Maria, Abraham, Evaristo, Cuauhtemoc, Ulises, and Lydia, as well as numerous loving extended family members.

The closed casket viewing will be held on Thursday, July 9, from 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM, at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel, 127 E. Caldwell Ave., in Visalia. All invited to pay respects a mask is required. I met Mozart in the mission field in 1977. We were both spanish speaking missionaries for the Church of Jesus Christ in Pennsylvania. What an honor it was for me to meet such a great guy. Just today I learned of his passing. I always wondered how his life turned out. As I knew he would he became a great husband and father. I finished my mission first and he as my district leader asked me to speak to those still continuing of how to become a great missionary. I was humbled that a great example of a missionary was asking me for advice. I just viewed the service in 2022 and was surprised he was gone. What a wonderful tribute his family gave him. Thank you all.

“ I want to thank so many of the beautiful people that have come to our aid during this difficult time in our lives. Losing my husband Mozart has been one of the hardest experiences that has happened in my life. My faith helps me keep my spirit up, and the responsibility of caring and continuing to guide my boys helps me to endure with faith the challenges that life has put in front of me.

The outpouring of love, support, and the help we have received to bear our load has been incredibly humbling. We cannot deny the great love our Heavenly Father has for my family and I. He has sent angels to assist us in various ways: family members, neighbors, friends, members of my Church, coworkers of my husband, meals, flowers, letters of sympathy, treats, texts, phone calls, rides, service, someone to talk to, funeral services to honor my husband's life, the list goes on and on.

I appreciate everyone of you!

It is a blessing for me to be united with a man that honored his family with his lifestyle. The assurance of being together again after this life gives me hope.

Mozart was 6'3"; I am 5'2". He always treated me like I was taller than him. He was a true gentleman, he always gave me encouragement, he was loyal, faithful, and tender. He brought out the best in me. He treated me like an equal; with respect and admiration. He honored me with his actions.

It is an Honor to carry the last name Lozano, but most of all to be the wife of Mozart Lozano a true disciple of Christ in thought and in action.

Thank you for your compassion and Christlike demonstrations of love.

Respectfully,

Elsa Lozano 💕💕

“ Mozart, sabemos que nunca apresuraste tus pasos, pero ahora que has partido, tus huellas están allí, quien las siga podrá encontrar el camino que ayuda a no perderse. Tu hijos con seguridad podrán seguirlas y no se perderán, sabrán que es seguro el camino, aún tu presencia se siente, tu presencia se queda en el corazón, en la mente y en el recuerdo de quienes te amaron aquí en la tierra y continuará del otro lado. Sabemos que elevaremos nuestro brazo hacia el cielo y te tocaremos aunque no se sienta, lo sabemos porque así lo dijo Dios. En donde estás ahora, sabemos que esta muy cerca de aquí.

Ve, descansa y sigue aprendiendo allá con el Maestro, aquí con lágrimas estaremos bien, tu recuerdo nos ayudará, sabemos que ahora estarás en los ejércitos de Dios. Gracias por haber venido, convivido, crecido. Ahora solo nos resta esperar, no te decimos adiós, solo te decimos: ¡¡en poco tiempo te volveremos a abrazar!!

Con todo nuestro amor.

“ Full of faith, fidelity, compassion, love, and wisdom; most of us can only aspire to be the kind of person and the example to us that Mozart has been each and every day. We will miss him dearly, but just as fervently will we anticipate the day of our reunion. I know our Father lives and that through His Son, Jesus Christ, death is overcome. I wish that blessings will flow in equal measure to our grief.

He always loved the Lord and put God and family first in his life. My memory of him is when he left on his mission. I was a very proud small nephew and looked forward to the day that I would have the opportunity to serve the Lord like him.*

“Mozart was an inspiration to me. His testimony of Jesus Christ and his tremendous example of obedience and discipleship was a rock for my own faith. I will miss him dearly but look forward to the time when I will see him again and we will greet each other as Alma and Ammon did after their years of separation and rejoice that we are still Brothers in the Lord. I pray that I live my remaining life to be worthy of his association. I picture Mozart standing at the podium in church bearing his strong testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ. I remember many of the experiences he shared. I picture him sitting in church next to Elsa and the boys. I also picture him at home or at activities, with a big smile on his face, laughing heartily. We have spent so many good times with him. I love him and his family dearly and look forward to a joyous reunion when we are all in the presence of our Savior and Heavenly Father.

There have been many testimonies of the many great qualities of this man that have already been shared. And as one of his cousins I can attest to the veracity of such statements. It has also been said that he was a great athlete which again it is true. But in addition to that he was a very patient man, even as a young man. I remember while we had the privilege of having him and one of his younger brothers Cuahutemoc stay with us in San Antonio for a little while, Mozart was competing in track and field as he had done most of his life. He was one of the top discus throwers in the State of Texas and in fact he broke school and City records during his participation. So, if you can imagine a serious athlete like him and a short chubby cousin like me going out in the fields for him to practice and train for his next competition, He taught me stretches, exercises and even took me jogging with him for what seemed to me a long workout but he didn't seem rushed and actually seemed to me that he was enjoying this time almost as much as I was. When he checked with me and knew I had enough, he told me he would see me a little later at home and went on to finish his workout. He could have easily said, no, I have to train for State meet or something else but instead he took the time to train with me FIRST, and when that was done he continued his workout (I can only imagine a little more intense than when he was with me :) As I write this, I ask myself, did I cost him State? I don't know, if I did, he never complained about it or said it. He just seemed to be happy to be taking part of this human experience we call mortal life, and he liked helping others feel that same joy. I will miss him.
