

Mya Makayla Rivas

January 14, 2010 - April 24, 2022

Our beautiful girl was born on January 14, 2010 in Visalia Ca. to Roxanne Rivas. Mya enjoyed many things but her favorite things were attending Church Services every Saturday with her great grandparents, drawing, playing with slime and playing with her cousins. If you were blessed to know her, you automatically loved her. She transmitted so much love and kindness towards those in need that once she said that if she had alot of money, she would feed all the homeless. She loved her family and enjoyed spending time with her uncles and aunties. She attended Sierra View Jr Acadamy through 5th grade where she made many school friends and loved her teachers and staff. Mya was wise beyond her age and her faith in God was strong. She faced her adversity with bravery and strength and often referred to the passage found in Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through Christ which gives me strength. Mya will be missed by her family and friends but we find comfort in knowing that we will see her one day soon. Our hope is found in Matthew 19:14 Jesus said , "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Mya is preceded in death by her mother Roxanne Rivas and Great-grandfather Macedonio Rivas. She is survived by her Great-grandmother Maria G. Rivas of Woodlake Ca. Grandfather Ramiro (Adriana) Rivas of Guadalajara Mex., Grandmother Rosa Garcia of Woodlake Ca., Sister Danielle Rivas of Woodlake Ca., Uncles, Aunts and Cousins.

“ Makayla, Mija I remember you with such love mi Nina. How could I not I named you babygirl. I was there while you were born. I remember that blessed day your momma was all worried about screaming in pain I held her hand and would tell her go ahead curly squeeze my hand or bit me if u need to I'm here I know it hurts . She squeezed my hand not even hard and gave me this look and then started laughing like a crazy woman She said no Lulu cuz if I do that you'll do it back.. and we started laughing. Next thing you were born . And wow such a beautiful babygirl. And my prima said well prima you get to help me name her. I was more than Honored my heart skipped a beat and I cried I said for real? I said ok yea cuz we don't want her to be named some ugly name, and so I named you Makayla a name I always wanted if I ever had another babygirl. Then I held you in my arms and loved you ever since. I held you and your sister in my arms during your momma's funeral and now I can't. And that hurts so bad. I love you mamas and I know your not suffering anymore. And I know your with your momma now. We will forever miss you both. Im grateful to our Lord that he gave me and blessed me the opportunity to have been part of your lives.i will miss you dearly and for ever keep you both here in my heart and memory. Rest in peace babygirl. You and momma keep watch over us .your sister please watch over her and help guide her towards a better life. I Love you Makayla and will for ever miss you and your momma Roxanne.
