“ I love you and miss you so much grandma! I already miss the days of sneaking you candy and watching Price is Right with you for hours at a time. I loved the time that we got to spend together these past two years as it reminded of when you took care of us as children, except it was us now who were looking after you. I miss you so much nana, but I am also happy knowing you're at peace and with your beloved family again.

*Love,
Matthew*
