

Nadine Joyce Perry

May 6, 1937 - February 13, 2019

Nadine was born May 6, 1937 to John and Mary Ennes. She had five brothers and two sisters. Her family takes great solace in the knowledge that she passed very peacefully by the grace and mercy of God on February 13, 2019 at the age of 81.

Nadine had resided in Farmersville, Pismo Beach, Visalia, San Mateo, Ben Lomond, and then back to Visalia after retirement. She was a hairdresser for more than 41 years and was always a very hard worker. She had an infectious laugh and loved to sing and cook. Her other passions included golfing, bowling, motor homing and growing Iris. She had a special place in her heart for her ladies' sorority, Beta Sigma Phi.

On August 6, 2005 she married the love of her life, Eugene F. Perry (Gene). He passed away on Sept. 15, 2017. Nadine wished to extend a special thank you to Steve and Irene Perry and their family for all of the love they gave her and Gene throughout their happy years together.

Nadine is survived by her two adult children and their spouses; David J. (Michelle) Porter and Robin (Steve) McKinney, as well as 10 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. She loved her family dearly and was proud of each and every one.

She was much beloved by all who met her, her laughter and childlike joy will always be missed.

Viewing will be held on Friday, March 8, 2019 from 9-11AM with a rosary being prayed at 11AM and the service beginning at 12PM at Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel in Visalia, CA.

“ My condolences to Nadine's family. I met Nadine when I went to work at the JC PENNY salon. She was the sweetest lady. She invited me to go to Trade Club once a month and that was a lot of fun. And she was lucky at winning stuff too. I will miss her.

“ I met Nadine when she and Gene were married. We shared many great times when Our husbands were in the Knights of Columbus. She had a wonderful laugh and she was a great helper with Caritas Christi. I remember the first Festival of Trees we had she and Mary Jantz came with their Santa hats on and their picture was in the paper. A wonderful woman, a great smile and treated me like a daughter. I loved her that way too. I had not been able to stay in contact due to an injury. Lots of love to Nadine and her family too.
