“ I have many fond memories of Nancy. When we were growing up, I remember looking forward to Aunt Lucille, Nancy, Tony, and Doug coming to Grandmother Clay's home for a week each summer. They always added excitement to the community and of course, John and I readily joined Tony and Doug in teasing Nancy. Thankfully, she was always forgiving, but protested enough to make it fun. My impression of her then (and this was confirmed as she grew into an adult) was that she had a very keen mind.. She could quickly turn our little insults around so that we were the ones who looked foolish rather than her.

She was very much like her mother. She was kind and caring and fun to be around. i really enjoyed her visits to Virginia with her children and grandchildren and will miss her, but I am glad that she is no longer suffering.
