“ I wish her business students from Sierra High School would have known of her passing... We would have filled the pews... Mrs. Enloe was my favorite teacher, my guardian and protector in many ways... I remember her talking about retiring because she couldn't stand the way young women spoke.. but she made us us better women and we will miss her ... Her spirit was always with us no matter where we settled.. she was loved... More than she knew and will be missed
