

Naomi Gertrude Chambers

August 7, 1927 - April 19, 2018

Naomi G. Chambers was born August 7, 1927 in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma. Her family then moved to San Jose, California, and finally here to Visalia where she finished high school. The beloved wife of Jack Chambers died of a broken heart only a week after losing her sweetheart.

She raised their family in San Diego, being very active in their church as well as her sons school activities. Naomi was a very talented designer and seamstress. She worked with her husband to get their company, San Diego Valve & Fitting Co. Inc., off the ground. In 1991 she and Jack retired to a Walnut Ranch in Visalia where they lived until moving to Green Acres in 2017. She is survived by sons Donald, Robert and Richard, granddaughter Kerris and her husband Al, great grandson Dorian, sister Carolyn Hestily and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flower, donations can be made to the Alzheimer's Association.
