

Osvaldo Ramos

August 8, 1972 - May 24, 2024

Osvaldo Ramos, born on August 8, 1972, in Patzcuaro, Michoacan, passed away on May 24, 2024, in Visalia, California.

Osvaldo immigrated to Visalia, California with his mother, older brother, and three younger sisters at the tender age of seven. Prior to taking on his best and favorite roles, as father to David Clark Ramos and Osvaldo Michael Ramos and abuelito to Brixley Irene Ramos, he was a father figure to his younger sisters, partner in crime to his brother, and his mother's biggest supporter.

His early experiences in life taught him the value of family, pride in his roots as a Mexican immigrant, hard work, and perseverance which he passed onto his sons, his pride and joy. He met his beloved wife, Dana Ramos, in 1993 at Wendy's where they both worked. A year after meeting, Osvaldo and Dana's meddling co-workers dared them both to go on a date. That date lasted 30 beautiful and amazing years.

Osvaldo spent his life focused on the most important thing in his life, his family. He was known for his love of the Raiders, old school rap, golfing with his father-in-law Steve, dogs, and, in his later years, cats. Yes, the pitbull lover became a cat dad to Sissy and Thor. He was devoted to his craft, auto body painting, and spent endless hours with his sons working on their cars.

In addition to his wife, children, and granddaughter, Osvaldo is survived by his mother, Aurelia Rojas; his older brother, Luis Ramos; his sisters, Aine Ramos, Maria Yaneth Rojas, Katya Ramos, and Liza Bolanos; his in-laws Steven and Irene Bargeon; and his 13 nieces and nephews. He was a beloved husband, dad, abuelito, hijo, hermano, and tio who will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
