

Pat Nardini

July 12, 1926 - September 15, 2016

The O'Daniel and Boyce family has lost its matriarch. Pat Nardini went to be with the Lord on September 15, 2016 at the age of 90. She was born in Hollywood, CA but lived in many places due to her father's occupation. While living in Seattle, WA, she met the love of her life, Cyril Nardini. He was stationed in Seattle for a short time during WWII. They were married in 1945 and he brought her to Hanford where they raised their family and lived the rest of their lives.

Pat worked as a medical secretary for various local doctors for many years. She has left us with a great flood of long memories, laughter and tears. She will be deeply missed and loved forever.

She is preceded on death by her husband Cyril, daughter Cheryl O'Daniel, granddaughters Antoinette O'Daniel and Mandy Boyce. Pat is also preceded in death by her long time companion Bill Hodges.

She is survived by a daughter Vicki Boyce and son in laws Jess Boyce and Terry O'Daniel. She was very proud of her Grandchildren Tracie (Ronnie) Perez, Dena O'Daniel, Kristy Smith, Jason (Ann) Boyce, Shawna Boyce, Loren Bettencourt and her Sister Dee Gensburger. Also surviving are 9 Great Grandchildren and 5 Great Great grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held Thursday, September 22, 2016 at 10:00 AM at the Calvary Cemetery in Hanford.

“ I have childhood memories of Tracie's grandma Pat, Sarah's grandma Frances and my grandma Jean Wilkinson sitting around visiting while we played. I saw Pat in May. She and my grandma were in the same rehab at the same time. Rest in peace Pat and my sympathies to your family 🙏
