“ Words, however kind,
can't mend your heartache:
but those who care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind.

May you find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends.

It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.

Although it may seem hard right now,
it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.

To my dear friends friend Gina, and children: David and Brianna. My heart has been heavy since hearing the news of Paulie. I have been trying to find the right words to express my sadness for your loss. I now realize that there are no right words. I hope you find strength and comfort through the memories you shared together. May the Lord give you strength and courage in the days ahead, and peace for your heart, soul, and mind. You are in my thoughts and prayers. With much love.

The greatest compliment to someone who has passed, is to live your life and keep their memory alive.

"Remember me with smiles and laughter, for that is how I will remember you all. If you can only remember me with tears, then don't remember me at all"
