“ I hope I never forget all the good memories I have of Peggy. How many times Peggy, Gary and I ate together, drank together, watched movies, walked in the woods, camped, or just hung out while doing nothing, or how many times I teased Peggy, and she would laugh and occasionally respond in kind because she was a great person! Try as I might, it was so dam hard to make her angry!! LOL Gary, family, and friends all miss her, as do I. Somewhere in the Heavens, Cosmos, Nirvana, the Great Hereafter, she is waiting for us, but not wanting to rush us, for each in our own time; and for me, and I hope all who are seeing this, guided by the Higher Power that is God. See you Peggy, and all of you someday when we least expect it...Peace and Love, Ken Quesada, Jessica Burton
