

Quirino Valencia Rangel

July 23, 1946 - September 22, 2023

Quirino Valencia was born August 20th, 1946, to Esteban Valencia and Senorina Rangel in Apatzingan Michoacan. Our father is now with our mother, Maria Magdalena and brother, Esteban Valencia in heaven.

Our father had multiple roles in his life from being the President of the Woodlake Charros Association, an agricultural worker, an entrepreneur but his favorite role was being a father. He loved nothing more than spending time with his children, grandchildren, and extended family. Our father was always there to help, give advice or share life lessons.

Growing up as his children we were privileged to witness our father's passion for this sport. We attended the charreadas and any community event our father participated in. Our father was a significant role model. He was humble and full of life. You would find him with a smile no matter what he was battling. He always saw the good in every situation and thought about others before himself. He loved every animal, but his favorite were his horses.
