

Ramanlal Ambalal Patel

February 10, 1937 - November 29, 2021

Ramanlal Ambalal Patel, age 84, passed away peacefully at home on Monday morning. He was born in India on February 10, 1937, to Ambalal and Maniben Patel. He wed Manjuben Patel on June 4, 1964 in Borsad, India. He was a businessman in tobacco trading and farming. Throughout his life he worked hard to achieve his goals of supporting and growing his family. He lived his life for his family and cared for everyone who knew him.

Ramanlal life was centered around things he enjoyed the most like spending time with family, managing his farms, listening and watching devotional TV shows and reading religious scriptures. He had great resilience and strength that allowed him to fight many battles and overcome obstacles that built a life that would support his family and many others for generations.

His legacy survived by his three children and spouses, Kirankumar and Amita, Anita and Dilip, and Neelam and Rakesh, two brothers, Jasbhai and Chimanbhai and many grandchildren. Family, friends and other lives he touched are invited to join with comfort of his loving family. May his selfless soul Rest In Peace.
