“ Ray was a gentle spirt with a huge heart. As the Executive Pastor at Visalia First Assembly Ray was a long time Lead Usher for me. I will never forget the day he came to my office to say he needed to step back due to health issues. I told him whenever you are able and ready you will be welcomed back with open arms.

Ray ministered to many people, all kinds of people. He loved bringing them love, care and Jesus.

His journey has been hard but he is well now.

You will be missed by many because you loved them first.

Well done brother, well done.

God bless Christine and family

“ I read Brother Rays Book my first time in the county Jail. The first weekend I was out i attended Visalia First Assembly of God and Ray met me at the door as a greeter. Pretty amazing. Was an honor to have him ask me to share my testimony years later at an outreach in Dinuba. Ray was a powerful man of God and Loved Jesus and People. He will me missed. Rest with Jesus brother Ray!
