

Rene Andrew Poblano

November 11, 1970 - October 31, 2022

Rene Andrew Poblano entered this world on November 11th, 1970. At the age of 51, on October 31st, 2022 is when he departed life. Rene was born and raised in Visalia where he graduated from Golden West High School. In high school Rene participated in track and field as well as cross country. After furthering his knowledge at College of Sequoias with an associate in science, he worked for 10 years at Land O' Lakes as well as a few other companies. Rene was preceded in death by his grandfather Andres Luna and grandmother Juana Luna. Rene left behind his maternal mother Adelaida Range, step father Rosendo Guevara Hernandez, brothers Jose David Poblano Jr, Rosendo Hernandez Jr and David Guevara. His sisters Annalisa Hernandez and Stefany Guevara. His Godmother Mary Garcia and Godfather Rodger Garcia. His best friend and son Richard Portillo and neighbors Jose and Yolanda Hidalgo.

Rene had many passions which included fishing, Steeler games, concerts and Nemo, his life companion as well as his departed star. Fishing is where Rene found his peace, and Steeler games is where he showed his pride. We could not forget the wonderful bond he shared with his grandmother Juana Luna, she was Rene's world, Rene loved singing and dance with her, enjoying each moment. Rene also shared with the many he came across, the support and bond he adored with his step father from the early age of 3 months, this will never be forgotten. Rene will truly be missed by many.
