

Reynaldo Saldua Quitazol

January 5, 1948 - July 16, 2024

To our beloved Dad; AKA Papa Quits, Uncle/Grandpa Rey, may you be enjoying the peace wherein you rest.

Rey was commonly known as the: Life-of-the-Party, Jack-of-all-Trades, best friend to many, family favorite, best dad and according to my mother, a bonafide flirt.

Rey was a collector of laughs and a fixer of broken things, a Registered Nurse by profession, and a mechanic/gardener/family caretaker by heart.

Reynaldo is survived by his wife of 48 years, Perlita, his children; Reylee, Reggie, Richard and Rhea, his 3 beloved grandchildren; Kailee, Alexis and Liam, as well as his eldest sister Virginia.

We are grateful for the man he is and the memories that he has given us.

Thank you to Family and Friends for the outpouring of Love, affection, and Prayers. We are truly blessed and touched by your devotion towards Rey.

We know he lived a full life filled with Love, Joy, and Happiness. And we Thank You for being a part of his magnificent journey.

With love always,
The Quitasol Family
