“ To my sister Katrina and the entire Analla family, I'm am extremely saddened by the loss of Stinger. He was no doubt a brother to me and a wonderful friend. I'm so happy that I had the chance to share life with him and to get to know you all. You excepted me with open arms and I love you all for that! I send my sincerest condolences 🌸 on today and pray for peace and strength for you all. Stinger, bro, you are loved and missed by many. I'll see you again my friend but until then watch over us all! ❤️🙏

“ My deepest condolences go out to you all for your tragic loss of an amazing young man 🙏 I wanted to share a special memory about Stinger and his brother and sister. When I used to come down from Bend OR to visit home I'd always stop at your old house in Goshen to see you all first, and when I'd get there I would come up to the door and say very loudly "Howdie" just like Minnie Pearl from the Grand Ole Opry anyway Trish and I used to act like her and the Baldwin Sisters from the Waltons when we was kids...So when I'd say " Howdie "I think ya all thought I was crazy but Matt your cousin and I loved to come visit. When I talked to Trish on Saturday she told me that Stinger use to reference that about me and it made my heart happy that he remembered me. RIP Stinger we all love you and your family 💕 My cousins The Emerys and The Carmichaels

“ We will always remember Stinger as the amazing man he was, as a husband to my BM Katrina, a father not only to his children but had enough love to take my son under his wing and provided my son with that father figure he needed. Thank you stinger for loving Kyle as your own, you are beautiful both inside and out. Your “old soul” your wisdom! (Thanks for explaining to me that a whip is actually my car) ur dirty jokes, and so wrong jokes! Like when you told kyle “I still can’t believe I accepted you as my son! How could I! When you have a big head and your not very handsome! Oh well too late now!” And that was your gentle nature and all of it now will always be a part of the memories in our hearts. May you rest with angels now, I’m gonna miss you you were my loaner hubby! And I hope you know how proud I was to see you and my BM Katrina rise above all life struggles! Hands down my dear neighbor. and to the the family, I pray for all to find the peace and comfort I know you guys they desperately need at this time. I love you guys so much, to Chris, Ashley, Rich and Trish, to Katrina and to My baby Matt, Tony, Daniel and my baby Kyle. I’m here in silence but here as you all been there through my losses. I cry everyday as I know your pain, and I’m sad but also happy because I had the honor to meet Stinger !! And to be a small part of his life. God Bless you all and know my family and I send our love and are here next door for whatever you all need. I love you guys more than ever. Stay strong !!
