You Tio. I known you all my life and I had some good memories with you and the family. You were loud and funny, and I am proud to call you my Tio. You gave out the best hugs, you seen me grow up as a young man, and made a difference in my life.

Once again Tio Robert,
Thank you. Love you.

“ I'll never be able to thank you all enough for scooping me in and trusting me to watch your home and your puppy girl Sophie. You all were the biggest blessing in my life after Grandpa John's passing, and love you all so much. The bond of Disney quickly got us talking when everyone gathered for my Grandpa's celebration of life. I had just gotten home from working at Disney World when we met and I'll never forget it. The next few years were a roller coaster with my health and my only income was dog sitting, I couldn't do much of anything else at the time. You welcomed me into your home, a very big Disney lovers home haha, and trusted me and absolutely spoiled me while doing so. While Virginia and I got close because of similar health experiences and the love of Disney I admired the love Robert and Virginia had for each other. I remember thinking what an awesome find of a guy who looks like big tough guy who's a correctional officer who also so happens to love Disney like he did. I witnessed what a loyal husband and father he was to them. He loved fiercely. He was goofy. He was a family man. I got to watch Robert play with their granddog Sophie, and Sophie adored him so much. Sophie and him had an unbreakable bond. Just like Robert had an unbreakable bond with everyone in his family. I have shed my tears, and my heart aches so so much for family because I personally witnessed what a fierce husband and father he was. Our loss is heavens gain, and I find some peace in knowing he is in God's arms and he is with all of those who are hurting and will be for as long as they shall live. ❤️ Love you all so so much
