“ Dear Duran family. My mother Vergie, sisters and I are so very grieved of the passing of your dad. He was a most caring man. We always enjoyed the time we spent together in your parents's company. I always looked forward to seeing your mom and dad at the Kingdom Hall when I came to visit my mother. I know that he will be and is greatly missed by all of you and friends. I hope your memories and times spent in each other's company will lighten the grief a little and you can find comfort together when you think of those special times. With great affection, Deb DeWitt
