Most days you could find him working at the ranch or on one of his many various projects. During his evenings he would unwind from the day watching sports such as baseball and boxing. In his downtime he enjoyed his different hobbies such as gardening, woodworking and welding. One of his many gifts was using his hands, he was a great skilled craftsman.

Many people who knew him understood his kind and easy spirit. He respected the animals and the land. Rodrigo was a true hard worker. He will be greatly missed.
