“ I've never been more Amazed with such a Beautiful and Loving person in my life, My grandma was completely selfless, always thinking about others and helping everyone who came across her path. The Best cook, she could whip up anything out of nothing. I will remember her most and be grateful for all her time she spent raising me and teaching me her values and her loving ways, more than that she taught me how to Pray, to love, and have Faith in God without which i wouldn't have the strength to get through this difficult time.

My Faith in the Lord is what's going to help heal my heart and help me to find my way back to my mom and grandma again, when its my time! Blessed am I to have been able to watch after my grandma. It afforded me with tons of memories that i will cherish forever and because of these memories my grandma will live on, she will live on threw me. I've got memories of good times, bad times, tearful times, tender times, memories of love, memories of recipes the list goes on and on

. I can't find the words to express exactly how I feel grandma but the good thing is, between you and I....I dont need to, you already know! Loving You Always,
